Senior Executive Management

Elizabeth Osborne

Executive Vice President
Chief Audit Executive

Elizabeth Osborne serves as executive vice president and chief audit executive for Fifth Third Bancorp. She oversees the Internal Audit division and is responsible for providing strategic, proactive leadership of all audit activities across the Bancorp.

Liz took on her current role in 2022 after five years as senior audit director. She was responsible for leading Professional Practices and Audit Strategy while overseeing audit activities for Enterprise Risk Management, including the Annual Assessment of Risk Management. She also is responsible for directing division-wide audit innovation and quality reviews. Liz was previously responsible for overseeing Finance, Accounting and Treasury, Capital Planning, Strategy and Human Capital Audit plans. She was promoted to senior vice president in 2016 and senior audit director in 2017.

Liz started her career as a staff auditor at Deloitte in 2000 and was promoted to senior in 2002. She joined Fifth Third as a senior financial auditor in 2004. Liz was promoted to audit manager in 2006 and senior audit manager in 2010. In those two roles, she had responsibility for audit activities for various businesses, including Finance and Accounting, Treasury, Operational Risk Management and Consumer Bank. She developed and managed the system coordinating Internal Audit and Deloitte, and she was responsible for the Audit division's review of Bancorp CCAR processes and submission materials.
