

Fifth Third Bancorp

Senior Executive Management

Jude A. Schramm

Executive Vice President
Chief Information Officer

Jude Schramm serves as chief information officer for Fifth Third Bancorp. He heads the Technology and Operations organization, which consists of Technology, Information Security, Central Banking Operations and Enterprise Program Management.

Before joining the Bank, Jude served as chief information officer for GE Aviation, where he was responsible for leading IT strategy and digital transformation. In previous roles at GE, Jude led IT for the Aviation Services and Commercial divisions. He also worked on numerous cross-division programs as a Six Sigma Black Belt and Lean Leader. Jude began his career at GE in 2001 as a developer and had roles of increasing responsibilities over his 17 year career.

Jude also is an alumnus of Ernst & Young LLP, where he served as a senior consultant.

Education

Jude earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in information systems and business management from the University of Cincinnati.

Professional and Civic

Jude lives in West Chester Township north of Cincinnati. He serves on the Board of Trustees for Cincinnati Hills Christian Academy, where he is actively involved in the school and serves as co-chair of the board's athletic committee.

