

Fifth Third Bancorp

Senior Executive Management

Kevin P. Lavender

Executive Vice President
Head of Commercial Banking

Kevin Lavender is executive vice president and head of Commercial Banking for Fifth Third Bancorp. He is responsible for overseeing the Company's vertically integrated commercial sales teams, Capital Markets, Specialty Lending and Treasury Management businesses. He also is a member of the Enterprise committee.

Kevin joined Fifth Third in 2005 as senior vice president and head of national corporate health care lending. In January 2009, he was named senior vice president and managing director of large corporate and specialized lending, a role in which he oversaw international and large corporate finance in addition to national health care finance. He most recently served as head of corporate banking.

Before joining Fifth Third, Kevin served as commissioner of the Tennessee Department of Financial Institutions, responsible for overseeing all Tennessee-chartered depository and non-depository financial institutions. Before that, he was co-founder and executive vice president of MediSphere Health Partners Inc., a private specialty physician practice management company. He began his career as group vice president for health care lending with SunTrust Bank Inc.

Education

Kevin earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in international finance from the University of Georgia.

Professional and Civic

Kevin served as chairman of the Nashville Convention & Visitors Corp. and continues as a member of its board. He also serves on the Nashville City Club board. Kevin previously served on the boards of PICA, the Podiatry Insurance Company of America, and of publicly traded Envision Healthcare, where he was chairman of the compensation committee and a member of the nominating and governance committee.

